

I am concerned about the possibility of allowing broadcasters to own more media outlets than currently permitted. There is already too little competition in the media. Big is not always better, and small radio and TV stations need to be able to compete in all markets. Consolidation of the media will inhibit that.

Thank you.